

Compass Healthcare Communications Relocates; New Premises Still in Princeton, N.J.

PRINCETON, N.J., Oct. 16, 2006 – Compass Healthcare Communications announced it has relocated its office to another address in Princeton, N.J. The move gives the online marketing agency the ability to expand operations and coincides with its third anniversary.

“Our new premises provide ample space to accommodate the growth of our business,” said Peter H. Nalen, president of Compass Healthcare Communications. “We are delighted to remain part of the Princeton business community.”

Serving the pharmaceutical, biopharmaceutical and medical device industries exclusively, the privately held marketing agency has experienced significant revenue growth and steadily expanded its client roster since its founding in 2003. Over the past two years, Compass’s annual revenue has increased an average of 75 percent annually and its client base has tripled.

The Compass team helps healthcare clients achieve their marketing goals through effective use of the Internet. The company’s new address is 14 Nassau Street, Princeton, N.J.; the phone number remains the same 609-688-8440. The website is www.compasshc.com

###